You long for Heaven, where there will be no winter to endure – either physically or spiritually. While on this earth, when the harshness of the winter of your soul threatened to steal your faith, peace and joy, flee – either physically or in spirit - to Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. There he will comfort you with the assurance that it is God who allows these “winters” of yours in order to make you more like His Son so that, one day, you will share the eternal Spring with him in Heaven.
